

Greetings! Below, you'll find a wonderful poem by Sandra Goodwin. I want to encourage you to read the poem, reflect on it, and let it inspire you to do what you can do (what we can all do) for God's Kingdom: PRAY! Prayer isn't hindered by age. Prayer isn't challenged by a disability. If you can't walk, you can still pray. If you can't talk, you can still pray. If you can't hear, that's okay – God can, and He does – PRAY! It is a wonderful privilege that God desires for us to cooperate with him in the saving work that he is doing all over the world, and he couldn't make our teamwork any easier; first and foremost, the best thing that any of us can do, is pray. Pray for those who don't believe. Pray for those who are suffering. Pray for the church around the world. Pray for those you know and those you don't know. So many of life's pleasures can be done to excess – you can drink too much, you can eat too much, you can sleep too much – but you can never overindulge in the pleasure of prayer. Please take up your part in God's mission and pray today, pray everyday! Enjoy the poem:

*Last night I took a journey
To a land far 'cross the seas;
I didn't go by boat or plane,
I trusted on my knees.
I saw so many people there
In deepest depths of sin,
And Jesus told me I should go,
That there were souls to win.
But I said, "Jesus, I can't go
And work with such as these."
He answered quickly, "Yes, you can
By traveling on your knees."
He said, "You pray; I'll meet the need,
You call and I will hear;
Be concerned about lost souls,
Of those both far and near."
And so I tried it, knelt in prayer,
Gave up some hours of ease;
I felt the Lord right by my side
While traveling on my knees.
As I prayed on and saw souls saved
And twisted bodies healed,
And saw God's workers' strength renewed
While laboring in the field.
I said, "Yes, Lord, I have a job
My desire Thy will to please;
I can go and heed Thy call...
By traveling on my knees."*
